

Celebrating 21 Years at The Granary

Island artist Steve Mills celebrates his 21-year association with the Granary Gallery with a solo show that begins with a reception on Sunday, Aug. 19, 5 to 7 pm.

Steve lived on the Vineyard as a child, and for more than 40 years, he has returned to the Vineyard to visit old friends and gather subjects for his paintings. His knowledge and fondness for the Island provides a ready source of inspiration and perspective for his work. His work is so realistic that his paintings are often mistaken for photographs.

The exhibit will be on display throughout the remainder of summer. The Granary Gallery is located on Old County Road in West Tisbury and is open Monday through Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm, and Sunday, 11 am to 4 pm. For more information, call 508-693-0455.

"Bottles," by Steve Mills, on display at the Granary Gallery.